Starting Research Can Be Overwhelming

Beginning Researchers...

- Don't know where to start
- Don't know how to evaluate sources
- See too many entry points to academic resources
- See the information landscape grow more chaotic every day
- Might not ask for help

Credo Reference offers...

- Academic content to build a solid research foundation.
- Interactive tools to help researchers expand or narrow their focus.
- Simple integrations that enable the discovery and usage of all of your library's academic resources.

Premier Reference Content

Credo Reference is a true academic alternative to Wikipedia, offering world-class reference to beginning researchers and faculty building introductory courses.

We offer thousands of full-text titles and images from 100+ premier reference publishing partners.

Below the title is a portrait of a man in a turban and robe, with the caption "Image Source". To the right of the portrait is a text snippet: "(OṯmṾn), vast state founded in the late 13th cent. by Turkish tribes in Anatolia and ruled by the descendants of Osman I until its dissolution in 1918. Modern Turkey formed only part of the empire, but the terms 'Turkey' and 'Ottoman Empire' were often used interchangeably. Economically, socially, and militarily, Turkey was a medieval state, unaffected by the developments in the rest of Europe. Turkish domination over the northern part of Africa (except Tripoli and Egypt) was never well defined or effective, and the eastern border was inconstant, shifting according to frequent wars with Persia. Of the vassal princes, only the khans of Crimea were generally loyal. The sultans themselves had sunk into indolence and depravity. The screenshot shows the Infobase Admin interface for the 'Usage Boosters' section. The top navigation bar includes 'Credo', 'Reports', 'Usage Boosters', 'Title Data', and 'Product Settings'. The left sidebar contains navigation options: 'My Resources', 'Users', 'Account Settings', 'Usage Boosters', 'Reports', and 'Saved Reports'. The main content area displays a Credo Reference widget with dimensions (Width: 320, Height: 300) and a code block for embedding the widget. The code block contains the following HTML and JavaScript code:

<script type='text/javascript' src='https://adminuat.aws.infobase.com/Scripts/UsageBoosters/TrackWidgetClick.js'></script> <script src='https://ajax.googleapis.com/ajax/libs/jquery/3.3.1/jquery.min.js'></script> <img src='https://adminuat.aws.infobase.com/Content/images/IconWidgets/SquareIcon_DB_CredoReference_320x300.jpg' alt='Credo Reference' onClick='track(294305,1,376,9);' border='0' width='320' height='300' >
